

Multilevel climate governance: Cities and Regions Talanoa Dialogues

UN Bonn Climate Change Conference 2018, SB48 Side Event

Date and time: Wednesday, 2 May 2018, 15:00-16:30hrs
Venue: Room: Bonn
Conceptualisation: Stories, good practices, challenges and opportunities on enabling effective multilevel climate action and governance compiled through the Cities and Regions Talanoa Dialogues <http://www.cities-and-regions.org/talanoa/>

SPEAKERS

- Ms Jisun Hwang, Senior Climate Advocacy and Policy Officer, ICLEI—Local Governments for Sustainability, World Secretariat (Moderator)
- Mr Stefan Wagner, Head of the Department of International Affairs and Global Sustainability, Bonn, Germany
- Mr Felix Döhler, Advisor, Urban Development at Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH
- Ms Sri Tantri Arundhati, Director for Climate Change Adaptation, Ministry of Environment and Forestry, Republic of Indonesia
- Ms Christina Paradiso, Director of Policy and Negotiations & Deputy Head of Canadian Delegation, International Climate Change at Environment and Climate Change Canada
- Ms Maryke van Staden, Director of the Bonn Center for Local Climate Action and Reporting – carbonn & Low Carbon Cities Program Manager of ICLEI—Local Governments for Sustainability, World Secretariat

INTERVENTIONS FROM THE FLOOR

- Mr Romain Crouzet, Programme Coordinator, Association Climate Chance
 - TBD, Ministry of Environment, Forests and Climate Change, Government of Ethiopia
-